

Canadian Cattlemen's Association

News Release

CCA officials meet with PM Stephen Harper

March 30, 2010

Calgary, AB – As noted in the March 29 edition of Action News, CCA officials met with Prime Minister Stephen Harper in Ottawa during the association's annual general meeting March 22-26, 2010. The CCA's President, Brad Wildeman, Vice President Travis Toews, Manager of Federal Provincial Relations Ryder Lee, and directors Martin Unrau of Manitoba, Curtis Royal of Ontario and Kevin Antworth of New Brunswick communicated a number of points of critical importance to the industry directly to the PM.

Here are some photos of the meeting, held in the Prime Minister's Centre Block office March 23, 2010.

Prime Minister Stephen Harper and Brad Wildeman, CCA President 2008-2010.

Prime Minister Stephen Harper and Travis Toews, CCA President 2010-2011 and vice president 2009-2010.

Prime Minister Stephen Harper and Martin Unrau, CCA Vice President 2010-2011 and director 2009-2010.

L to R, Prime Minister Stephen Harper, with CCA officials Martin Unrau, Curtis Royal, Travis Toews, Brad Wildeman, Kevin Antworth, Ryder Lee.

The National Voice for Canada's Beef Cattle Industry, representing 90,000 Cattle Producers

Visit www.cattle.ca

For further information, contact:

Gina Teel

Communications Manager

Canadian Cattlemen's Association

403-275-8558 x 406 | teelg@cattle.ca

www.cattle.ca